WOMEN TO HELP TAKE THE CENSUS.

Mrs. Estelle L. Small Won't Pay a St. Louis, With Sixteen, Leads All Other Cities in Number of Female Enumerators.

Supervisor Higgins Expects Great | Results From Their Work-He Assigns Them to Residence Districts.

In the taking of the census, which he gien on next Friday, St. Louis will lead all other cities in the number of women cuplayed as enumerators. New York has only three, while Chicago is hardly worth mentioning in this connection. St. Louis has sixteen. One of the sixteen, Mrs. Adtie M. Johnson, is well known, at least by reputation, to most persons in St. Louis who read the papers. Census Supervisor Higgins is not a ladies' mon, in the popular sense of the word, When it comes to accuracy and diligence, though, he believes that women are the Astoria. According to the contract, it is superiors of men. That is why he appointed, with the approval of the powers at Washington, so many women as enumerators. The Washington officials must have agreed with Mr. Higgins on this verdict.
